It is the style of the Clarkburg ladies to be married on horseback.
"BAUERKLAUT" signs are multiplying, but no two spell the word alike.

NEW CURE is the popular beverage of our nice young men.
These cold nights have hushed the melodious rym of the Eighth Ward frog ponds.

FOG—Yesterday morning the fog was almost impenetrable. Snow shows could have been used to advantage early in the day.

GOING TO STAY—From the persistency with which the musical mosquito hangs about the city, it is concluded he intends to remain during the winter.

ARRIVED—A car load of handsome, substantial chairs, ordered by Mr. Hamilton for the new Opera House, arrived yesterday. Another car load is due.

GUARDIAN APPOINTED.—The County Court yesterday appointed Ellen Moran guardian of Frank Moran, aged thirteen months. Bond, $300.

DEAD—Mr. Faris Hamilton, who has been lying ill some time at the residence of his mother in Centre Wheeling, died yesterday afternoon.

BELLAIRES—We print to-day an interesting letter from this busy little city. Would be much obliged, however, if our correspondent would write only on one side of the paper.

CORN—It was thought that the corn crop this season would be unusually good; but we are informed that, owing to the early frosts, it will fall below the average. Lovers of the juice N. B.

A DISGRUNTLED SIGHT.—A drunken woman averted Eighth-warders amusement last evening. Placing herself on the railroad track, she assumed the attitude of Timon of Athens and bid defiance to an approaching train. She was, however, dragged from the track in safety.

COMMENDABLE.—A strange sight was seen in Alley B, between 12th and 14th streets, yesterday. Two men, with horse and cart, were engaged in removing the dirt and garbage which has so long been a stench in the nostrils of the citizens in that vicinity. Let the good work go on.

COUNTY COURT.—In this court yesterday the following cases were disposed of: Mary Nary et al. and T. Howley, in Chancery. Demurrer to bill overruled. State for the use of Catharine Bazzett et al. John Kiewit, et al. Case continued. Adjourned to Court in course.

BELLAIRES LETTER.

Editor Intelligencer:—Bellairs at this period presents the appearance of a business place. The Gas Works are being rapidly completed. It will require but a few days more labor. Neighboring villages will take notice of our gas lamps. No lamps will not be almost sacrificed here.

The Window Glass Works, we are informed, have been compelled to stop for a few days, owing to a strike by some of the workmen. This will not amount to very much, however, as the company expects to resume work with new laborers in a few days.

Our backs are reported in good condition, and are prepared to meet any emergencies that may come. A nobler set of bankers cannot be found anywhere.

Commercial business is to some extent quiet, and there is a general anxiety among the merchants for the future.

The manufacturing business stands up under the panic excitement bravely. Some of the glass factories, we are informed, for the time being pay but half wages in cash to laborers. The coal mill and blast furnaces are a bold front.

Improvements are continually going on. Mr. Geo. H. Muth is erecting a very fine iron front brick on the corner of Belmont and Third streets; also Mr. M. M. Sanders. Numerous buildings are being put up in every locality. One thing is badly needed, and that is a Hammer, or some person who has the grit to put up an Opera House or hall suitable for public amusements.

Health is something we cannot boast of. For some time past Death has visited us frequently, taking from one to four persons per day. Quite a number are lying at the point of death at this time. The prevalent disease is some kind of bilious fever.

CONVINCED.—For some time past there have appeared in the city papers occasional notices of a new manufacturing enterprise in Wheeling. We allude to the manufacture of ladies' wear by Messrs. I. Blum & Bro., Nos. 184 & 119 Main street.

Impelled by that Yankee curiosity to "the man born," yesterday visited the establishment of the Messrs. Blum, and confess to a feeling of agreeable surprise at the extent and importance which this department has so quickly assumed.

Here anything, from an infant's dress to a lady's sack or suit, of any quality or style is made to order in the shortest possible time. A lady's dress can be made, in any style, in four hours. Between thirty and forty girls are kept constantly employed, and during the past season the Messrs. Blum have manufactured and sold 1,700 ladies' suits.

That such an establishment in our city is appreciated and patronized, is shown by the immense business already done in this department. Their motto is "convenience and cheapness." A lady desiring to replenish her wardrobe may call at the Messrs. Blums, select a suitable piece of goods, look over a book of the latest fashions and choose a style to suit her taste, and the garment wished will be ready for wear inside of four hours. There is no profit in this manufacture; the only cost is for the time consumed by the girls employed in making the article. This will explain what has puzzled the public mind so long—the exceedingly low prices.

We would advise all our lady friends who have not yet been there, to call at this establishment and be convinced.

UPSET.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while two ladies were returning from Mt. Wood Cemetery in a buggy, their horse became unmanageable and ran down Main street at a fearful rate. In turning the corner at 11th street, immediately opposite Mr. Joseph Will's book store, the buggy was turned completely over and the occupants thrown to the ground. Neither of the ladies, who reside in the Eighth ward, was seriously hurt. We were unable to learn their names.

FIFTY-TWO PIANOS PER WEEK.—The number of pianos turned out per week by the great house of Steinway & Sons has actually reached the enormous figure of fifty-two; and with all that they are constantly behind their orders. Inquire at the New York retail warerooms on Fourteenth street, at the agencies at Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, or at Adams & Lucas, in this city, and you'll find that no large stock of these pianos can or ever does accumulate. They go off as soon as received, and further, for the plain style of instruments customers have frequently to wait for weeks and months; yet such is the popularity of these wonderful instruments that persons of taste and judgment would rather put up with delay and inconvenience than procure an inferior brand of piano. The Steinways alone manufacture more piano Fortes than the eight next largest piano manufacturers of New York put together. It is worth a visit to the warerooms of Messrs. Adams & Lucas, 159 Market street, and examine the choice square and upright Steinway Pianos there exhibited.

OPERA HOUSE—How Warm and Comfortable.—The furnaces here now in the new chairs are now in the new matings are down, and the Opera House is cozy and comfortable throughout. Manager James Fitzsimmons is still pushing along, working the new theatre into popularity, and last night's house certainly showed the result of his energy. The ladies were there in numbers, and to-night again, as it is decidedly a ladies' evening, with the beautiful play of "The Lady of Lyons," they will doubtless be there in all their smiles and fashion. The bill this evening is a splendid one, and is the only night it will be rendered, as there is another new bill to-morrow night, and a grand matinee to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon. The matinee of the Opera House are decidedly a feature, and the little folks, particularly, parents and guardians avail themselves of these delightful daylight performances. The success of the Opera House must be a fixed fact, and under Manager Fitzsimmons' reign will be so.

"THE HONKY TONK."—A fine audience assembled last evening at the new Opera House to witness this splendid comedy. There were very few empty seats, and the performers and audience were in perfect sympathy and good humor. The entire cast was admirably rendered, and the frequent and hearty applause of a critical audience, such as Wheeling turns out, encouraged and animated all. The roaring force of "Jennie Lind" kept up constant screams of laughter.

To-night will be produced "The Lady of Lyons," and a screaming after-piece.
